

An aerial photograph of Hong Kong, showing a dense urban landscape with numerous high-rise buildings. In the foreground, a lush green hillside (Victoria Peak) is visible, with a few traditional-style buildings and a paved area. The background shows the city extending to the water and distant mountains under a blue sky with scattered clouds.

Asia Progressive Judaism

Teen Shabbaton

November 23-25, 2018

Hong Kong

Get a new perspective! From the top of Victoria Peak to the bustling night-time streets of Soho and Central explore Hong Kong with other Progressive Jewish teens. Celebrate Shabbat, learn, hike, give back, have a party on an antique tram, spend time with old friends and make new ones — you'll gain a new perspective on what it means to be a Jewish teen in Asia.

Cost: HK$1,400/person includes all meals Shabbat dinner through Sunday breakfast, activities, and touring.

RSVP to Rabbi Martha (rabbimartha@ujc.org.hk) by Tuesday, November 6.