Photographer - Rabbi Joshua Plaut, PhD

For over forty-five years Joshua Plaut has also been an acclaimed photographer of Jewish life in the diaspora. His ten photography exhibitions, ranging from Central Asia to the Balkans, the American South to Jewish merchants and markets the world over, have been displayed at major museums and galleries across the United States, Europe and Israel. His photographs are in the permanent collections of museums, archives and private individuals. He is now completing his first photography book entitled "Sparks of Splendor: Portraits of Jewish Women the World Over," a 25-year photographic chronicle of Jewish women.
